

Board Of Realtors® Names Award Winners

The Estes Park Board of REALTORS® presented its 2007 awards at their recent annual banquet and installation dinner. Patricia Wills of Mountain Paradise Real Estate, Inc. was named REALTOR® of the Year, Mike Richardson of First Colorado Realty/GMAC received the Rookie of the Year award and Anne Burrows of Boulder West Financial Services was recognized as Affiliate of the Year.

Wills has been selling Estes Park real estate since 1997 and has served the Board of REALTORS® in many capacities, including president. She is the broker owner of Mountain Paradise Real Estate, Inc. Trisha has many interests including teaching classes at Rocky Mountain Health Club.

Patricia Wills-REALTOR® of the Year

Richardson joined First Colorado Realty/GMAC in July 2006. His generosity and commitment to Estes Park and the real estate community are well known among his peers. He is currently president of the Recreation District Board and served as a volunteer firefighter for many years. Mike and his wife, Marie, have two children, five year old Nathan and two year old Alexis.

During her 18 years in the mortgage industry, Burrows has given freely of her time and talent to many community service projects such as the Board of REALTORS® Bowl-A-Thon benefiting

Mike Richardson- Rookie of the Year

Victims Advocates and the annual golf tournament. Anne and her husband, Karey Brown, make their home in Lyons.

The Estes Park Board of REALTORS® is committed to supporting its members and the community as a whole. Members abide by the National Association of REALTORS'® Code of Ethics, which is the standard for professionalism in dealing with the public and one another.

Anne Burrows- Affiliate of the Year.